

GPV Asia is looking for

Program Manager - Electronic

This Position Reports to : Senior program Manager

Reporting to this Position : Sr.program Administrator., Program Administrator

Responsibility:

1. Strictly follow the GPV Group Code of Conduct, methods and lean principles.
2. Ensure compliance with the company's management system, policies and rules.
3. Supervise, consult and support sub-ordinate to be successful in their responsibility.
4. Evaluate sub-ordinate against performance indicators.
5. Monitor margin and enforce program managers to take action in case of profit loss.
6. Customer contact and customer service.
7. Customer analysis and satisfaction evaluation.
8. Make sure that customer minutes of meeting is provided.
9. Collect all information and making reliable sales report in the right time.
10. Ensure that KPI is achieved.
11. Ensure that customer contracts are up to date.
12. Keep focus on delivering according to company strategy.
13. Program management when implementing new products, including making project plan, delegation of task to the right person and follow up any progress to insure that project plan is achieved.
14. Secure that new products can be released for production from reception of part to shipment, and insure that documentation, processes, engineering change can be done in a correct way according to customer document.
15. Technical contact person internal with regards to product or customer, including clearing of process, routes, programming, etc.
16. Technical contact person toward suppliers regarding to approval of alternatives.
17. Follow up production status and feedback to customer
18. Plans and forecast customer future requirements for existing/new products.
19. Receive, review and request addition PO for existing/new products.
20. Coordinate quoted, re-quoted price and ECO cost for existing/new customers.
21. Coordinate and implement customer business review.
22. Establish, Implement and take actions (if needed) to ensure that customer's debt insurance is in control.
23. Oversee the planning, implementation, execution and evaluation of special projects.
24. To be a leader of project improvement in term of cost, delivery and quality.
25. To be a leader in the conference call with the customers.

Qualification (Education/ Work experience/ Skill) :

1. Male/Female minimum 5 years' experience in electronics manufacturing or 3 years experience in electronics management level.
2. Bachelor degree in Engineering, Preferably master degree in any relevant field.
3. Good command of spoken and written English.
4. Appreciation for a system and knowledge about variation
5. Systematic Problem solving and Decision making.
6. Problem analysis, Critical Thinking skills.
7. Strong leadership, good attitude, proactive thinking and self-motivated

About GPV International

GPV is a knowledge based EMS (Electronics Manufacturing Services) partner with production sites in Thailand, Denmark and Mexico. The company delivers advanced electronics solutions and mechatronics to customers worldwide. GPV's customers are leading within the industries of Cleantech, Instruments & Industry, Medico as well as Marine & Defence. The company counts a staff of around 1,300 employees.

Read more on > gpv-group.com